CommNETS Newsletter No.5- March 2017

Hi Everyone

Welcome.

Happy (belated) New Year to all.

This is to record events at the 2017 meeting and update you on progress since. Hopefully all the project teams have been working away as per the ambitious goals we set in Hawaii in December! In April we will ask for a "formal" update regarding each project, to ensure that we don't lose the great enthusiasm and momentum of the meeting.

Please let us know if you need some funds (small amounts available) or admin. assistance.

Also remember to send any NET-related info or publications from CommNETS members for our website.

Best wishes

Simron and Eva

CommNETS 2017 Annual Meeting - Save the Date

CommNETS-NANETS Consensus Day Meeting

Group Dinner - Post Consensus Day Meeting

On the day following the CommNETS meeting, a combined group of CommNETS and NANETS members met to develop a consensus paper on the Optimal Follow up of Fully Resected GI-NETs, as the final step of our Follow up Project. This is currently being written up for publication and will form part of an abstract to be submitted to ESMO 2017.

Presentations and Publications

CommNETS had a productive and successful 2016 and continues into 2017. Poster presentations at conferences, the most recent a poster accepted for ENETS 2017, publications and an oral presentation at ASCO GI 2017.

Copies of all the presentations and publications can be found through our website Click here

ASCO GI Presentation

On Friday January 20, 2017 Dr Simron Singh presented the following paper on behalf of CommNETS: Development of followup recommendations for completely resected gastroenteropancreatic neuroendocrine tumours (GEP-NETs): Practice Survey of Commonwealth Neuroendocrine Tumour Collaboration (CommNETS) in conjunction with North American Neuroendocrine Tumour Society (NANETS)
